COMMON ORAL JUDGEMENT

I have heard Mr.R.P.Bhatt, learned Counsel

appearing on behalf of the petitioner in SCA No.8747/1993. Similar cases have been filed in SCAs No.9344/1993 and 9423/1993, but in those cases, Counsel for the petitioners are not available.

It is submitted by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that the matter relates to D-Pharm Courses of the year 1993 and as per the interim order of this Court, courses of study continued and, therefore, the petition has become infructuous. The learned Counsel, however, submits that if any difficulty arises, liberty may be given to the petitioner to approach afresh.

Having regard to the fact that the cases are of very old ones and relating to the continuance of D-Pharm Courses, which as per the interim order of this Court, continued by the Government, I am of the view that the matters have become infructuous. Accordingly, all these three petitions are disposed of with a liberty to approach afresh. Rule is discharged. No order as to costs. This order is passed after hearing Mr.V.M.Pancholi, Ld. AGP, appearing on behalf of the State respondent in all the three petitions.
